SHUTOUT FOR OGDEN IN SECOND GAME WITH BOISE

"Red" Toner's good right arm proved the undoing of the Ogden Cannons yesterday and the game ended 10 to 0 in favor of Boise. The reason for the zero has been explained, but the reason for the ten was thirteen hits by the Irrigators, aided somewhat by six errors on the part of the Cannons.

lined up, holding the Irrigators hitless for two innings. He didn't live through the fourth, however, being "jerked" in favor of Todd after he had allowed four hits, which were good for three runs. This was Todd's first local appearance and he made a pretty fair showing, considering the fact that the men behind him booted five times after he went in, their ragged work having considered able to do with the six runs put over by the Irrigators during his period of service. In the 7th inning he pitched he allowed 7 hits, 1 pass and struck out four men.

One of the features of the game was the work of the two sun-fishers, Ellis and Moorehead. They pulled down four flies apiece, all of the former's being from exceptionally difficult angles. Bart Woolums also fielded a couple of bad ones nicely.

The absence of Murphy from the Cannons' lineup was felt. Bert Spencer, who replaced him, fielded the position nicely but the old injury to his right shoulder prevented him returning the ball to the infield in time to do any good. His stick work also was not on a par with that for which Murphy is noted when his meat runs.

Bauer, the first man to face Ballinger, got a single and was poked three-bagger. Blauser was passed in by Kelley, who swatted out a and Thomas fled out to Ellis. Then Blauser tried to purloin second and was pegged out by Seabough. Bostick walked and got even with Seabough for his teammate's out, by stealing second. Coleman hit one in the air almost to the centerfield fence, but Ellis pulled it down with a fine run.

Spencer went up first for Ogden, getting a round of applause as he stepped to the plate. He fled out to Moorehead. Woolums went out at first, Thomas to Toner. In sliding for the base, Woolums tore a big piece of leather from the heel of Toner's right shoe, which "peevish" the big pitcher to a marked degree. Before he got his temper back, Jones took a single off him and then stole second. Cobb went out, Blauser to Thomas.

Moorehead, Wessler and Toner went to the bench in the second on three flies, which were taken by Risberg, Woolums and Spencer. Ogden almost got a run in the second half, but Risberg went out, Wessler to Thomas, and Dowling got a two-bagger. Ellis fled to Moorehead and Seabough was purposely passed. Bostick booted Ballinger's grounder and the bases were choked. And then Spencer put up a little fly which Bostick got under and the inning was over.

In the first half of the third, Bauer struck out, Kelley went out, Risberg to Woolums, and Blauser fled to Ellis. In the second half the Cannons' chances again looked good but the runs failed to materialize. Woolums went out, Bostick to Thomas, and Jones walked. Cobb fled to Kelley. Jones then stole second, drawing a high throw from Coleman and on the error, went to third. Risberg was passed and duplicated Jones' steal. The best Toner would allow Dowling was a muffled bingle along the first base line, which Coleman fielded and threw to Thomas, thus killing the local's hopes again.

After Thomas, the first Irrigator up in the fourth, went out, Risberg to Woolums, Bostick hit a single into Ellis' territory. When the ball arrived, Ellis straddled it and Bostick went to third. He was poked in by Coleman, with a single. Moorehead duplicated advancing Coleman and Wessler sent them both across with a two-bagger. That finished Ballinger and Todd went in to perform. Toner went out, Dowling to Woolums and Wessler took third on the play. Woolums straddled Bauer's grounder, allowing Wessler to score and Bauer to reach first. With Kelley up, Bauer stole second and went home a moment later on Kelley's two-bagger. Blauser scored Kelley with a two-bagger down the first base line, which four of the Cannons went after. Spencer finally fielded the ball and threw it to Dowling, who muffed it and on the error Blauser went to third. Thomas went out by the air route, Cobb accepting the chance.

Ellis got a single in the second half and went to second on Bostick's wild throw over first. Seabough fled to Kelley, Todd went out, Bostick to Thomas, and Spencer fanned.

Bostick started things again in the fifth with a two-bagger. Coleman got first and Bostick was held on second by a fielder's choice. Both advanced on Moorehead's sacrifice, Woolums to Dowling, and Bostick scored on Wessler's sacrifice fly, Coleman going to second on the same play. Toner fled to Cobb.

Toner struck out Woolums and Risberg and gave Jones a base by grazing the leather on his bat. In the second half and Cobb fouled out to Coleman.

Todd fanned Bauer in the first half of the sixth and Kelley fled to Ellis. Blauser singled and registered on Thomas' three-bagger. "Ducky" muffed the throw to third and Thomas went home. Todd then tightened up and struck out Bostick. Dowling fled to Bauer, Ellis fouled to Coleman and Seabough went out, Bostick to Thomas.

In the seventh, Coleman went down—Jones to Woolums and Dowling threw Moorehead out at first, after fielding a grounder from that player's bat, in big league style. Wessler singled and Toner struck out.

and the pitcher saved the inning by tossing it to Woolums.

In the Cannons' half, Risberg singled and went out at second on a fielder's choice, Dowling reaching first. Ellis advanced Dowling with a single. Seabough fouled to Bauer and Todd fled to Wessler.

The first half of the ninth was a duplication of the first half of the second by Moorehead, Wessler and Toner. Their offerings were taken by Ellis, Dowling and Jones.

In the second half, Spencer and Woolums went out by the "air" route, Moorehead and Bostick taking the chances. Jones ended the game. Wessler to Thomas.

MURRAY IS A VERY GOOD FRIEND TO SALT LAKE

Salt Lake, June 25.—The Sea Gulls started the rungetting early. In the first Potts got a walk, went to second on an infield out, to third on a wild pitch and scored on French's sacrifice fly.

Three were added in the third on a single by Hester, a home run by Huelsman, a double by French and a triple by Davis. Davis was cut off at the plate.

One more counted in the fourth on a triple by Allen and a single by Potts.

Three were hung up as the result of the activities in the sixth. A single by Caldwell, a sacrifice by Allen, singles in succession by Potts and Hester and a double by Huelsman did the trick. Huelsman was caught at the plate.

A couple were added in the seventh on singles by Tonneman and Caldwell, the latter hit getting away from Clynes in right and putting the runners on third and second. After Allen struck out, Potts hit second base way. There was a wobble and a poor throw and Tonneman and Caldwell counted.

The ninth netted the Sea Gulls four. Galena started with a triple and scored on Tonneman's homer. Then there was a single by Caldwell and a double by Allen, a base on balls to Potts and a muffed ball at third. A single by Morgan, who took Huelsman's place in left, was the finishing trick.

Up to the fifth the Infants had hit four. "Lefty Jim" safely only twice. In the fifth Murray got their first tally on Pendleton's home run drive over left field fence. The Infants got two hits in addition to the homer, but they didn't count, a double play aiding materially in retiring the side.

Five hits in the seventh netted the Infants only two scores. With one out, there were singles in order by Pendleton, Menges, Clynes and Carman, then a strike-out and a single by Caveney. Clynes was caught at the plate on a splendid throw from right by Galena.

Pendleton's triple and Carman's single counted the last run for the Infants in the ninth.
